New York Stock Market

New York, December 5.—Operations in the stock market to day were very quiet and featuriess. Prices backed and filled within fractional limits, for the most part, and the day's business was limited to the professional party, which at the moment seems indisposed to make a move in either direction. Such issues as Atchison, New York Central and Paltimore and Ohio were subjected to pressure at times, but responded almost immediately to support. Last week's hank statement, showing a large loan expansion and a cash loss in excess of all extinates, was not well received, and probably accounted to: the general recessions recorded at the opening. Money is very cary at this centre, however. Complete returns to the Compitolic of the Currency of the contition of the mational banks as of Nocember 10 show increases of loans and discounts by a majority of the banks in the West, Middle West, Pacific Coast and Southern States, Only in this section has there been any marked decrease in loans, which have fallen over $55,000,000 with an increase in ladividual deposits of more than $22,000,000. As the legal requirements of all the banks of the country are exceeded by almost $74,000,000, no immediate strain in any quarter is apprehended.

Little attention was paid by Wall Street to the reassembling of Con-hended, ittle attention was paid by Wall eet to the reassembling of Con-ess and the proposed bill of tariff revision. American issues were steady on the London exchange, but the premier security was heavy in that market, London was a small purchaser of stocks for the account were more nominal than usual.

Traffic reports from the West indicate that the leading transportation companies are carrying a fair share of freight. The movement east of Chicago shows a falling off, however.

Bonds were steady, save for some, weakness in Seaboard Air Line adjustment 5s, which made a fractional decline. cline.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, December 5.—The cotton market was not active to day, but prices ruled steady on covering by local shorts, a little Southern buying and some support from leading bulls, with the close quiet but steady of the points and while the cables were no better than due prices gradually worked higher, with an absence of commission house pushess suggesting that the scattering long interest had been pretty well evened up on the decline of last week Rumors of a bullish national ginners' report probably inspired part of the demand, and while buying did not become general the market showed a generally upward tendency until prices had received a net gain of About 2616 points. Later there was enough realting by scalping longs to cause a moderate reaction. It was rumored that the report of the National Ginners' Association showed of late of the National Ginners' Association showed a generally under the point of the National Ginners' Association showed a pole of the National Ginners' Association featily long the points. New Orleans, I.a., December, 5.—Spot cotton 1-8c, higher; middling, Il3c, sales, 1-125 bales on the spot; to arrive, Il.810. Futures opened steady at an advance of 264 points on good cables. Official cables reported a somewhat higher future market in Liverpool than expected and the private cables spoke encouragingly of the business done in cloth in Manchester. China was said to be a large buyer of heavy cloths in Marchester. The market was steady throughout the morning. Traders on both sides of the market were much pleased over the amountment from the Census Bureau that its report on ginning this week would be lassed on Thursday. The trade will now have nearly two days in which to figure estimates of the croy, and when the ginners' teturns are published, and long side.

The Duty of Making a Will

No man should defer the drawing up of his will. Other pressing duties you may have, but none more important than this-the making of due provision against the in-upon the person or persons entrusted with the carrying out of your expressed wishes. The Virginia Trust Company is duly authorized by law to act as Executor, and may be named in your Will to act alone, or jointly, with an individual executor.

Of greater importance, however, will be the duty devolving
